Seminars are interactive and specifically designed for school & educational psychologists to enhance their effectiveness in their roles in relation to clinical and mental health issues that such psychologists encounter, and need to consult on in their work. A maximum of 25 places ensures active involvement and learning, and enables focus on the specific needs of participants. Intended to integrate with the optional Advanced Workshops. Feedback for the last 5 years has been very enthusiastic - the program has been booked out for the last three years.

Advanced Clinical Workshops Program - 2012

Facilitated by: Dr. Simon Crisp

Neo Psychology – 378 Burwood Road Hawthorn		5.30-7.45pm	Date
#1 - Advanced Adolescent Counselling and Therapy	Strategies for engaging adolescents in counseling and therapy, dealing with resistance, turning grunts into goals, provocative therapy and therapeutic use of humor. How to match your approach to different adolescent presentations and needs.		Tuesday 7 th June 5.30pm to 7.45pm
#2 - Adolescent Risk Assessment and Management	Suicide & self-harm risk assessment; assessment of the potentially violent adolescent; crisis management; strategies for managing and reducing risk issues such as suicidal behavior, self-harm, substance abuse, high-risk behavior. Learn from the experience of a Clinical Child & Adolescent Psychologist with over 20 years experience.		Tuesday 2 nd August 5.30pm to 7.45pm
#3 - Designing and Running Group Programs (including school-based programs)	Group-based programs for indicated high-risk groups are effective ways of intervening early and preventing further morbidity. This workshop gives the practical 'how to' of every aspect of school-based groups: designing an effective program, recruiting participants, creating an effective group, leadership "do's and don'ts," generalizing learning beyond the group, evaluation and ensuring lasting benefit.		Tuesday 30 th August 5.30pm to 7.45pm
#4 - Responding to the Traumatized and Grieving Adolescent	Traumatic incidents, acutely stressful events and loss significantly impact on adolescents who are especially vulnerable to such experiences. A skilled and informed response can rapidly mitigate these effects and assist young people to cope well and overcome intense destabilization and loss, and improve stress resilience.		Tuesday 22 nd November 5.30pm to 7.45pm

Advanced Workshops are highly practical and focus on imparting clinical skills and are designed to complement the Seminar program or can be done as a stand-alone training. All workshops are facilitated by Dr. Simon Crisp who has well over a decade of experience in training mental health professionals and has lectured at Monash University in postgraduate Counselling and Ethics & Professional Issues. Drawing on Simon's extensive and broad clinical experience with adolescents, participants can expect to build their confidence in working with the many challenging issues of adolescents, and increase their repertoire of effective interventions and clinical skills.
